

WHO WE ARE

Fox Chapel Golf Club is a 1923 Seth Raynor designed golf course, and is currently ranked #71 on Golfweek's Top 100 Classic Courses. The Club was host to the 2002 Curtis Cup and the 1985 U.S. Women's Amateur. Our Turf Management Team is recruiting highly motivated individuals of strong character to enhance our overall capabilities and strive toward greater achievements. This is an exciting opportunity to play a key role in improving an architectural masterpiece. Experience will be available in mowing and rolling technique, fertilizing, pesticide applications, irrigation and hand watering techniques, along with many other crucial skills necessary to succeeding in the competitive arena of championship golf course management. Varying experience is acceptable as our Program is tailored to meet the needs of each individual.

The Right Fit

Obviously the choice in front of you is a big one. It is a choice that will ultimately affect the future outcome of your career and the path that your life will continue along... do not make your decision lightly! Take the time to learn as much as you can about the facilities and programs that you are considering... if possible, visit them first. There are a lot of great courses throughout the country and it is easy to get lost in a name... you owe it to yourself to discover the best fit for the direction your future is heading, and fundamentally where you will learn the most.

Learning Opportunities

We personalize internships to maximize the individual educational experience. A typical internship will focus on the following:

- Mowing Techniques
- Rolling Techniques
- Fertilization Techniques
- Pesticide Application Techniques
- Irrigation/Hand Watering Techniques
- Pest/Stress Identification
- Member Interaction/Communication

... along with many other crucial skills!
